WE NOMINATE

Henry DeWolf Smyth, "representative, interpreter and diplomat of science in the affairs of the Free World," who this week — a quarter-century after he was first "drafted" for public service — has been granted a five-month leave of absence to meet the accelerating demands of his assignment as United States Ambassador to the International Atomic Agency in Vienna. Smyth's one-term leave, granted by the University Trustees at his request, will precede his retirement in June upon his completion of 42 years of teaching, research and scientific administration on the Campus which for some 114 years has numbered a member of his family among its distinguished teacher-scientists.

It was in 1940 — before work on the atomic bomb started — that Smyth was "tapped" as a consultant for the National Defense Research Council and the Office of Scientific Research and Development. Since then, serving under five Presidents of the United States, the 67-year old Smyth has helped shape American nuclear power policies either as a consultant to agencies or missions, to the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, or more directly as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission and as U.S. Representative to the 96-nation International Atomic Energy Agency, founded in 1957 to promote the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

From 1943 to 1945 Smyth was general consultant to the Manhattan Engineer District which produced the A-bomb. He was called upon in 1944 to write his now famous "Atomic Energy for Military Purposes," popularly known as the "Smyth Report," and published in 1945. Earlier Smyth had sagely suggested to President Roosevelt's advisers the need for such an official report for, if the atomic bomb should prove possible, a new age in international relations would inevitably follow.

In the preface, Smyth wrote: "The ultimate responsibility for our nation's policy rests on its citizens and they can discharge such responsibilities wisely only if they are informed."

The son of a Princeton geologist and the brother of a Princeton chemist, Smyth had resumed his duties at Princeton when President Truman appointed him to the Atomic Energy Commission. At the outbreak of the Korean War he was asked to continue his government service and, in June 1951, accepted a further appointment to a five-year term. His resignation and return to Princeton in October of 1954 came approximately 18 months before the expiration of that term. In June, 1954, with characteristic courage and forthrightness, Smyth was the lone member of the five-man A.E.C. to vote in favor of restoring government clearance to Robert Oppenheimer.

A month ago Smyth, who as chairman of the University Research Board holds the rank of Dean, was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees of Universities Research Association Inc., a 34-university organization that has offered its services to the Federal Government as contracting agency for the construction and operation of a proposed particle accelerator in the 200-billion-electron-volt range, the largest instrument ever projected for the conduct of basic research. In 1946, Smyth was Princeton's scientific representative on the nine-university committee which brought into being the mammoth Brookhaven National Laboratory.

For his continuing years of "invaluable service" to higher education and to the nation; for his major contributions to the development of modern-day Princeton, where he has lived since a youngster of seven; for his vision in advancing research programs in science; he is our nominee as

HOW TO BUILD A SCHOOL

Ask the Townspeople, Township citizens took their first tentative, hesitating steps Tuesday night on the long road leading to a Princeton Township High School.

What kind of high school do you want, asked Richard Pearson, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and hesitatingly, awkwardly, sometimes reaching for ideas through long silences, the Township residents gathered at Community Park School for the first public exchange of ideas on the new high school, replied:

- "Teach a formal course in logic and a course in elementary law."
- "Choose the principal and the department heads by examining their entire philosophy of education, not just their qualifications as educators."

- "Keep a good student-teacher ratio so that youngsters can get individual attention."
- "Make the language department as strong as possible with the most modern language laboratories built into the building."

- "Give the girls' gym enough locker space."

No "Ins" and Outs? A few persistent themes emerged during the two-hour meeting. Mr. Pearson emphasized at the outset that the committee was dedicated to keeping the college and non-college boys and girls together, with no "in" and "out" groups and the question of vocational education facilities was examined frequently.

"Don't make a student de-side irreversibly in ninth grade whether he's going to be college preparatory or not," urged Joseph Silverstein, 38 Overbrook Drive. "Let the non-college youngster switch to college preparatory in 11th grade, if he's suddenly decided that's the way he wants."

Gilbert Turner, 159 Cedar Lane, a member of the Citizens' Committee, suggested that co-operative arrangements with other institutions might be the only way to accommodate the 100 to 150 non-college boys and girls in the new high school.

Mr. Turner and Mr. Pearson discussed the problem of sending vocation-bound students outside the high school for specialized courses in, for example, machine-shop work and at the same time, keeping the students an integral part of the student body. Mr. Silverstein asked for a "community oriented" school, with vocational and technical training offered through local industries or offices.

That Pressure for "A's." The relationship between grades and learning was another theme which concerned the audience. "There is such pressure on kids to get high grades," Mr. Pearson observed. "Can we reduce this pressure?"

Mrs. C. Shelby Rooks, 152 Guyot Avenue, asked the committee to explore "ungraded" schools in which students move freely without preset assignment to "hophomore" or "freshman" classes.

The committee has plans to consider the ungraded school, Mr. Pearson replied, but he warned Mrs. Rooks that the system is not so ideal as its proponents seem to think.

"It requires a lot more testing than youngsters get now," he pointed out. "Students spend less time in learning and more time in taking tests."

No Marks? Several members of the audience approved the idea of eliminating marks and grades, as a way of relieving the pressure and Mrs. Reynolds Steinbock, 73 Deepwater, said children should be taught concepts and values as well as facts, and not just how to get high marks to get ahead.

Mr. Pearson suggested that the question was one of balance: don't eliminate grades, but create an atmosphere without grade pressure.

"What are the things that have made the country's top high schools great?" asked Mrs. Robert Solomon, 51 Braburn. "Aren't these the things we should try for, too?"

Mr. Pearson said the committee hadn't explored other schools in detail as yet, but he mentioned breadth of program, individual attention to each child, the dedication of teachers, and a fine physical plant as a "mix of things" to strive for in a school.

About the Building. Although Mr. Pearson asked for opinions on the physical plant, his audience seemed to shy away from walls and windows. He said, in reply to one question, that the committee is aware of the Ford Foundation's study on the role of architecture in a school and he told the audience that Joseph Behndt, a committee member, has already visited the Educational Facilities Laboratory.

Mrs. Rooks said she wanted to be sure there was lots of room for extra-curricular activities like a school newspaper and a photography club, and John Valentine, 105 Dods Lane, asked for an art studio and courses in art history and appreciation to which might uncover latent interests in a teen-ager.

"I'd like to see lots of 'non-variety' activities" stated Mrs. Edward Meservey, "non-variety sports for kids who will never make the team, and non-variety singling for the ones who will never make the choir."

"We want VERY MANY teachers for very few pupils," Mrs. Meservey added, "and it's going to be very expensive and I shall be very glad to pay my share."

How Much? This brought up the question of costs, and Mr. Pearson said the committee, so far, had been dealing "in adfectives, not in numbers. Adfectives like "reasonable" be said with a smile.

He said the Township was not planning to have sending districts. Let it end up in the same position the Borough is in today. Mrs. Arthur L. Kelser Jr., 244 Edgerstone, suggested that the yardstick for cost might be the tuition now paid yearly to the Borough.

"We've asked what you want to include," said Donald Riddle, vice-chairman of the committee. "What would you leave out of a new high school?"

The township course in American History received the most votes, but Mr. Riddle explained this was state law.

In response to a suggestion from Mrs. Steinbock that courses be given only three days a week instead of five, Mr. Pearson said the committee might consider giving students increasing time for independent study in the years between ninth and 12th grade so they could learn how to develop to independent projects.

What Do the Kids Want?
Has anybody asked the students what they want? asked Curtis Lippincott, 158 Valley Road. "After all, college enrollment requirements will determine our curriculum to a certain extent. Teenagers today work so hard — I'd like to know how they look at it all!"

William Flagg, sub-commuty chairman for extra-curricular activities and such things as guidance, said that he would be meeting with the Leadership Group at Princeton High and he asked what questions he should fire at the high school boys and girls.

"Ask them how they'd like to see a course developed," replied Mrs. Simon Moss, 433 Walnut Lane, "or whether they have any time to read for their own enrichment, or whether they have too many courses."

In attempt to focus the discussion picture presented by remarks of the evening, Commissioner Morton Darrow suggested that the evidence had not told the committee whether it wanted an experimental high school or a traditional one, a school with strong emphasis on learning, or a school which was a pleasant place to be; a school which provided a high degree of individual attention, or a school which taught group skills.

"There needn't be any conflict, any dichotomy," answered Mrs. Jess Epstein, Littlebrook Road, retiring member of the school board. "We can create an atmosphere which is conducive to the growth of the individual without lessening the emphasis on learning.
We can reduce the pressure of driving for high marks without losing stress on subject matter."

There was applause for Mrs.
Epstein, and after Mr. Pearson repeatedly assured an indignant parent that the new math had its problems but was indeed a necessary part of today's curriculum, the meeting adjourned.

SEE THE CARS SLIDE

Snow Triggers Accidents.
The winter's first snowfall last weekend caused a number of accidents in the Township. No serious injuries were reported.
On Sunday afternoon at 4:30, a car driven by Mrs. Agnes G.
Culver, 50, South Brook Brook, slid on a Route 206 curve near Exting Street, causing its front tire to catch in a rut on the right shoulder of the road. Her car, out of control, slammed into a pole.

Mrs. Culver received concussions of the chest and right knee and lacerations. A possible cause, Mrs. Pauline Conover 42, of Round Brook, was also involved for lacerations and concussions.

There were two other skidding mishaps Sunday. At 11:15 a.m., the morning, Marcela A.
Sternberg, 32, of Trenton, lost control of her car on Mercer Road. It skidded across the opposite lane, and a damaged Ford 16 foot of bridge on Olden Lane belonging to the Institute for Advanced Study.
Her son, James, 7, was slightly injured.

David P. Rice, 33, Princeton Avenue, Hopewell, skidded into the guard rail on Quaker Road at 2:40 in the morning.
He escaped injury but his 1964 station wagon had to be towed away.

Two on Saturday, Saturday morning at 11:35, James R.
Ash, 27, of Trenton, skidded out of control on Route 206 near Edgerstone Road. The front end and motor of his car were extensively damaged when it hit a pole.
A passenger, Jon DalCorno, 14, of Trenton, received a lacerated chin.

The station wagon of Mrs.
Patricia S. Sheehy, 28, of Somerville, had to be towed away when it skidded and hit a pole on Route 206, 150 feet from Hilltop Drive. The mishap occurred shortly before midnight.

Police said Mrs. Sheehy's car skidded when she braked to avoid hitting a car stopped in front of her. There were no injuries.

In the Borough, Mary Diccristano, 69, of Brooklyne, was x-rayed for a possible skull fracture at Princeton Hospital following a collision of the car in which she was a passenger with another Saturday morning at the intersection of N.
Harrison Street and Franklin Avenue. The driver was her husband, Benedetto, 68.

The second car was operated by Margaret E. Seruby, 57, Crusher Road, Hopewell who police said failed to stop at the foot of Franklin Road. Her car was spun 180 degrees when it was struck in the side by the Diccristano car traveling south on Harrison. P.U. Donald Forward ticketed Mrs. Seruby for failing to observe a stop sign.

TWO BOYS DROWN

In Canal Tragedy, Two boys drowned and a third barely escaped Thursday afternoon when they went through the thin ice on the Delaware - Raritan Canal near Lake Carnegie. The drowned boys are Jacob Schlessinger, 7, son of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Schlessinger, Hibben Apartments, and Steven M. Coyne, 8, son of Major and Mrs. Robert A. Coyne, Maple Apartments. The survivor is David McIntyre, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McIntyre, Hibben Apartments.

All were in the second grade at Riverside School. The sons of University faculty members, they lived in the University's faculty apartments on the shore of Lake Carnegie.

The three boys left their homes after school to skate on Lake Carnegie. After a time they crossed the strip of land dividing the lake from the canal and went out into the canal's thin ice. They fell into nine feet of water about 15 feet from the shore.

University grounds keepers driving their truck along the canal's tow path saw the boys in the water and threw them rope which they had in their truck. David grasped the rope and was pulled from the water. He was rushed to his home and given first aid. The crewmen were Frank Anderson, Leonid Collins, Eddie Vernon and foreman John Perna.

respiration to both boys but without success, and they were pronounced dead at the scene at 4:30 p.m. by Mercer County medical officer Dr. Leonard Berry. Parents identified them at 5:20 at the Kimble Funeral Home.

Dr. Schlessinger is a lecturer in mathematics at the University. Major Coyne, who received notice of his promotion from captain the day his son drowned, is an assistant professor of military science. He came to Princeton in October following a tour of duty in Vietnam, an assignment which earned him a Bronze Star.

How to Prevent? Sergeant Jack Petrone, Township police, safety officer, said after the tragedy that the canal is never safe for skating, and that Lake Carnegie was not safe that afternoon. People who have lived in Princeton for some time, Sergeant Petrone added, know that the canal is never safe, but newcomers like Hibben-made apartment dwellers, may not know this.

Aware of the hazards of the canal, Sergeant Petrone went to the two faculty apartments about three weeks ago and gave a special ice-safety lecture to the children. He said that both the drowned boys had attended his illustrated talk, but that David, the survivor, had not been present.

Deeply concerned about the tragedy, University officials led by Walter Dodwell, chief security officer, have been coordinating with Sergeant Petrone about tighter controls. Two years ago — February 18, 1964 — Eric and Michael Rothaus, age 8 and 6, sons of Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Rothaus, 135 Leabrook Lane, were drowned as the Lake Carnegie ice broke under them.

The First National Bank of Princeton has given $20,000 and the Princeton Savings and Loan Association $1,500.

The Hamilton Township Women's Club has made cash gift to the building fund. Hospital records show that 118 Hamilton Township residents were patients at the hospital last year.

The Women's Auxiliary of Princeton Hospital has given $57,900 in additional cash and pledges, which were included in earlier report figures without identification.

The Auxiliary is giving $7,500 in cash, and has pledged $50,000 more. A previous pledge of $150,000 to the building fund is almost complete. The annual Hospital Fete in June is the Auxiliary's chief source of income.

Princeton Hospital has until March to accept a construction bid of $2,670,400 for the 12-building addition. To start construction, the hospital needs $865,793. A challenge gift of $250,000 will be made

MOVING DATE SET

For Borough Grade Schools. The Borough Board of Education has announced that the April 7-18 spring recess is the target date for closing Nassau Street and Witherspoon Schools and moving to the new John Witherspoon school on Walnut Lane.

It also is developing a plan to expand the high school schedule next year. Weekend hours would be either 8:07 a.m.-2:50 p.m. or 9 a.m.-3:45 p.m. According to Principal Kenneth Michael, who discussed the proposal at Tuesday's board meeting, "We would pick up classroom space through adding periods. There would be no loss in time or academic program or expenditure for additional space."

He explained, as an example, that each of the four biology laboratories would be free one more hour per day. "We can schedule four more biology classes a day," He stated that schedules for peripheral activities, such as club programs, make-up sessions, recreational activities and intramural sports could be adjusted to the new schedules.

The proposal has been discussed with the school boards and principals of the sending districts, giving them a choice of schedules. Mr. Michael noted that the expanded schedule would not decrease the present teacher-pupil ratio. Class size at the 1800-pupil high school ranges from 15 in some courses to as high as 37 in introductory modern languages, history and English.

1966-67 Budget. A new note was introduced into the budget hearing held during the meeting. Charles Cornforth, in discussing the yearly rise in per pupil costs asked, "Where are you taking me? Where do we go beyond this?"

"How much farther is public education going to demand these increases?" President Graham Rotter said. "This is a two-edged sword. The question we have debated in board meetings is 'where is public education going?' The post-Sputnik years have increased demands on public education, requiring a more efficient job, a more individual job. Teachers salaries alone ate the biggest item in this or any other school district."

The board approved the $2,537,740 budget for 1966-67. The amount to be raised by the Borough is $1,134,340, an increase of $206,530 over the current year.

"Upward Bound." Superintendent Chester B. Stroup announced a summer program to widen the horizons of culturally deprived students at the high school is in the office. As explained in detail by Mr. Michael, the project is "Upward Bound," backed by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The motivation program would place 10 to 15 boys and girls from each of eight schools on a university campus this summer. Final approval by the GEO is pending.

MOTT A SUICIDE

Soviet Officials Say. Newcomb Mott, 27, a salesman for the Princeton publishing firm of D. Van Nostrand Co., committed suicide while being transferred to a Russian forced labor camp. Soviet officials said on Friday. Arrested last September near the Norwegian border and tried in Marmansk two months later, Mr. Mott was sentenced to serve 18 months on a conviction of illegally crossing the Russian border.

A Van Nostrand managing editor, Jay F. Wilson, said on Monday, "On December 16 we were informed of a manner of mailing letters and packages from Newcomb." He said the company received mailing information from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Mott of Sheffield, Mass., at the same time. Office personnel and members of the sales staff have sent personal letters, information on books, and sales literature to him.

Ready or Not

Got your shovel
Pulsed bright?
It's going to snow
A-oon tonight.

More snow is on the way, the Man reports, and depending on when you read this, that shower may already be needed.

High temperatures during the next few days aren't expected to move out of the 30's, dropping well below freezing each night. The law of averages is at work, giving even for the mild weeks that marked the beginning of the current winter.

Mr. Mott, venturing to Norway at the time of his arrest was a "college traveler" for Van Nostrand. His territory was Western Pennsylvania, upper New York State and part of Ohio. He called upon university professors, introduced Van Nostrand books, gathered information on texts being used and scouted for manufacturers.

His parents have stated their conviction that their son was either murdered or driven to suicide by psychological pressures. During his early months in prison, his father said, his son mentioned that the thought of suicide had crossed his mind, but later letters indicated he was looking to the future.

MEYNER HOME ROBBERED

$10,000 in Jewelry Taken. The home of former Governor Robert B. Meyner at 16 Olden Lane was entered between 6:15 p.m. and midnight Saturday while Mr. Meyner and his wife were out for dinner. Borough Chief Peter J. McCrohan said that the entire house was ransacked.

J. Francis Maguire and Detective Robert B. McAvoy are in charge of the investigation. Continued on Page 10

News Of The THEATRES

BRECHT PARABLE COMING
for the theatre. Bertold Brecht's "Good Woman of Setzuan," will open this Friday at 8:30 in Murray Theatre for a three-weekend run. Community Players is the producer. Anne Rottman will play the demanding role of Shen Te, the "good woman" rewarded by three gods who have been traveling the earth in search of one good person.

When they find Shen Te, they stay on earth to observe her. The "good woman," in order to remain good, assumes the guise of a ruthless cousin who cannot afford to be generous unless she can save her property and cannot save her property unless she is mean and calculating.

The gods deceive themselves and proclaim Shen Te a truly good woman. She realizes the futility of her self-deception, but does not know how to face reality and still remain good — and the gods have no answers.

In support of Miss Rottman will be a Community Players' cast including John Kerwin, Trevor Owens, Tom Quennan, Roselyn Solo and Joylon Sprawles. Tickets are on sale at Male's Book Shop and will be available at the box office.

GASSMAN ON STAGE
In Theatre Anthology, Moviegoers who know Vittorio Gassman for his work in "Bitter Rice," "Big Deal on Main Street" and "The Easy Life," will be able to see Signor Gassman in person when he brings his troupe of Italian players to McCarther Theatre on Sunday, February 27, at 3 p.m. The Gassman production, "The Game of Heroes," has been compiled from famous plays of the Italian theatre, beginning with Commedia dell'Arte and continuing to the present.

Scenes from Pirandello, Ugo Betti, Goldoni, Griffi and others will be performed in costume and in Italian. An English introduction to each scene will guide the English speaking members of the audience.

Only eight theatres in the country have been chosen for the Gassman production, and McCarther is one of them. "The Game of Heroes" will have its American premiere at the Lincoln Center's Vivian Beaumont Theatre the week before it comes to Princeton.

SHOOT:

The Piano Player. The 1960 French film, "Shoot the Piano Player," will be shown in McCarther next Friday, February 24, at 8 p.m. The film had previously been scheduled for February 1.

Starring Charles Aznavour and Mario Del Bois, "Shoot the Piano Player," is the second feature film conceived by the "new wave" director, Francois Truffaut.

'TERRITORY UNDERWATER'

Underwater Adventure Film. A 7,000 mile underwater safari that covers almost every conceivable aspect of skin and scuba diving will be seen this Friday in the film, "Territory Underwater." Showings will be held at 7 and 9 p.m. at the Princeton YMCA under the auspices of the YMCA Scuba Club.

The underwater adventure begins with a barracuda hunt and a search for sunken galleons in Florida waters. The action moves on to the Bimini Reef, to French lakes, and then on to the West Coast where the divers meet marine life ranging from whales to porpoises to giant mantle rays. The divers lose a race with the sea lions and then meet the moray eel in some of the most exciting footage ever filmed. The movie features the nationally-known diving professionals, the Bruner Brothers. Donation is 75c for children under age 12, $1.50 for adults.

"Lysistrata"

Aristophanes will follow Brecht on the Community Players' spring calendar.

"Lysistrata" will be given by the Players late in March and travels for the held next Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in Murray Theatre on campus. Information may be obtained from Sylvia Tomlin at 921-2723.

As a prologue, Alan Downer, chairman of the department of English at Princeton University, will speak on Aristophanes at an open Players' meeting to be held on Wednesday at 8:30 at Murray Theatre.

There are also rocket-firing motor bikes, a two-man life bell that operates at 15 fathoms, huge underwater sleds capable of transporting 20 megaton H-bombs, a giant hydrofoil that zooms to a clean at 85 mph, and a land-to-air device that matches a man a foot at 100 miles per hour. IT'S NEW To Us

HOP AN ISLAND

Clayton's Will Help. The island-hopping at Clayton's this winter may well lead you in Hawaii. A collection of bathing suits in luscious tropical pastels and brilliantly royal stripes, has been assembled by Clayton's from a Honolulu manufacturer, who probably hopes you'll buy one of his suits and take it straight back to Waikiki.

Our favorite is the arnel sharkskin in bars and swirls of royal blue, mustard and white, each bar and swirl outlined narrowly with black. It's a dressmaker style for non-bikinis.

We're not sure what Clayton's policy is on modeling bathing suits, but you'll undoubtedly see a McMullen dress some Tuesday soon at the Nass. The silken silk called "Sherbet," perhaps, and this means raspberry sherbet, fashioned into a shift with pin tucks all the way from McMullen collar to hem and elbow roll-ups. $60.

A drip-dry pique has been painted with water colors of powder, turquoise, pink and mustard. Another McMullen, for After-Five, is a silk print cocktail of lemon, cherry, lime and a fizia of white, with U neckline and no sleeves. $65.

Watch for a model wearing a Mougatelli linen whose fit it achieved by double seams down the side fronts. We saw it in "chink red," which is a deep and dusty rose. A matching Hong Kong cable cardigan keeps off tropical sunset breezes.

Nantucket's linen is a ripe, ripe lime with double-button panel down the front to the hipbones, white-piped collar and short sleeves. $45.

If you'd like something out of these price brackets, try on the pale pink and white boucle knit for $19, with its little sleeveless over-boucle tabbed at the hips.

"Mr. McVeer" ignores the hips and actually recognizes the waistline. It's a house-keeping dress (arnel) in cherry-pink.

"Sailing Blues," by American Goller, will take the sports-woman anywhere south. Dresses in that blue have white topstitching lapel and little red anchors to keep your feet on the ground.

Clayton's is happy this spring about its Country Miss cotton suits, sturdy and natural in shade, printed with Pennsylvania Dutch designs in deep royal or coffee. You probably saw them nationally advertised.

Another C. Miss suit is cheerful mustard with long and buck jacket and still a third is natural "linen" with a briefer jacket than the one we mentioned first.

For your spring investment dress, Clayton's suggests the Baron Peters silk with its discreet cap sleeves and narrow belt at the natural waistline. The waist-length jacket has buttons in the same powdery navy as the dress.

But for Hawaii, forget the navy silk and buy that lionel-ho bathing suit.

STYLE ON YOUR BUDGET
Stitch and Paint. The habit of browsing through Skillman's Furniture Store on Alexander Street is apt to grow and grow once you get it started, because so many truckloads of "new" furniture

Fashions at Lunch

Strolling models will show the latest in cruise and summer fashions if you have luncheon each Tuesday at the Nassau Inn. Clayton's fashion co-ordinator assembles each week a group of fresh new clothes to show you how to wear them next week in the Bahamas or next April on Nassau Street.

Clothes are modeled between noon and 2 p.m. in the main dining room, the Bar and the Coach Room; everywhere, that is, except Rotary, and once the men learn what they're missing, maybe Rotary will ask for models, too.

are deposited at the store that you'll find something different every time you stop in.

Skillman's sells used furniture, mostly, although there is a fresh collection of pristine unpainted bookcases in six different sizes, and Danish-style couch and chair sets.

On a recent visit to Skillman's, we found a $35 barrel-back chair with wigs and little Queen Anne legs. It's in good condition and needs nothing beyond your own skillful slipcovering. Another chair which would respond wonderfully to your imagination, is a low-boudoir model with wide fan back, wide and shallow seat and a challenging $15 price tag.

Perhaps your most pressing need is for the Hide-a-Bed, the Lawson styled one for $115, with striped upholstery in astonishingly good condition, and a clean mattress. One thing you'll appreciate about this Hide-a-Bed is the set of big brass ball-bearing casters that make it so easy to move.

If it's to go in your guestroom, you could match it with a four-drawer chest, all eight wooden drawer handles firm and intact and the chest itself in sturdy shape, except for the coat of paint you'll cover it with $15.

Another $15 and you can take home a shelf unit 30 inches high and a good two feet deep: splendid for hold-investigated the theft. They listed as missing from bedroom dressers approximately $40,000 in jewelry belonging to Mrs. Meyner and two fur coats from a hall closet on the first floor valued at $2,000 each.

Mrs. Meyner also reported that her purse containing $220 in cash and credit cards was missing. She told police she found a chair in the front hallway before going out. Mrs. Meyner reported losing a pair of cuff links and a watch. Access to the two-story corner home was gained by breaking a pane of glass and reaching in and unlatching a door leading to the dining room.

First to investigate the former governor's call regarding the theft were Sgt. Theodore Lewis and Ptl. Charles Harris. Lewis and Detective Mike Avenis spent the entire next day questioning neighbors and delivermen. "So far, they haven't been able to give us anything," said Chief McCrehan.

Same Time, Different Home
At approximately the same time the Township house of Charles B. Hunan, Stony Brook Lane, was entered and robbed. In a near carbon copy of the Meyner theft, a rear door of the Hunan house was forced open and the bedrooms ransacked and jewelry taken — approximately $200 worth. The main pieces were a $1500 platinum bracelet containing diamonds and sapphires, a $400 diamond and sapphire pin and a $125 antique gold pin.

Commenting on the two thefts, Chief McCrehan said that it was quite possible the work of one thief. He included in this theft Friday evening at the home of Francis G. Clark, Cleveland Road, Hopewell Township. Mr. Clark is general secretary of the Princeton YMCA. State Troopers from the Hopewell Township station report that a mini stole worth $306, a flashlight and an antique gun were taken. Total value of the items was $422.

Both upstairs bedrooms were ransacked but nothing downstairs was touched, police said. Entry was gained by forcing a rear storm door and a second door immediately in front of it.

Take Tape Recorders, Friday this week.

Election Exception

The Hopewell Valley Regional Board of Education emphasized at Monday's special meeting that, as a regional school district, the annual election will be held Tuesday, February 1, rather than on the second Tuesday in February, as in previous years. Residents of Hopewell Township will vote for candidates and the proposed 1966-67 school taxes. In Hopewell Borough and Pennington Borough, the vote is on taxes only. Eight polling places will be open from 2 until 9 p.m. The polls are the same used in municipal elections.

afternoon at 3:30, a clerk at Bob Lange's Appliance Store, Lewis and Pine, Chapter 11, Maguire and Detective Mike Avenis reported the theft of two large recorders one valued at $39.95 and the other at $19.95. Township Detective Fred Porter however said one recorder was taken from a counter and another from a shelf while the clerk was in a back room with a salesman.

Two walkie-talkies worth $129 each and a box of tools valued at $75 were taken during the heist. From a panel truck parked in the rear of the Houghton Building, 211 Witherspoon Street, the truck is owned by radio station WIWIL. Louis Bushfield, a technician for WIWIL, told police he had parked the truck behind the building on Saturday. When he discovered the theft Monday afternoon, he told police that a rear window had been knocked out.

An undetermined amount of women's apparel was taken from the store by the Princeton Boutique, 2 Chambers Street. Ptl. Donald Forward discovered the theft while checking doors on night patrol. Pending a check with the owner, Mrs. Angeline Alonso, 270 State Road, who was on vacation at the time, police were unable to determine the extent of the loss.

ELECTION "CRITICAL"

"CBS" Group States, "Election" Paralyzed for the Borough Board of Education are at a critical point, not only for the future of the Borough schools, but also for the future of the Borough itself," said the Citizens' Forum for Schools Group.

The "CBS" group supports school board incumbents John A. Buckland and Robert A. Levey and Mrs. Bonnie L. Wagner.

The group asserts that only by electing these Borough residents to the school board can the Borough "insure open discussion with the Township on a course of education in Princeton and preserve the character of the Borough itself."

"If we try to go it alone," CBS believes, "killing taxes will force more and more middle income people out of town."

Cite SOS Distortion. "The hand-picked candidates of SOS continue to distort facts and sow distrust," CBS says. "Last — continued on page 11"

Campaign Under Way. Multiple sclerosis, the crippling disease that so often strikes young adults, is the focus of attack for the Central New Jersey Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The Chapter's annual "MS Hope Chest Appeal" is now under way, with funds collected during the campaign earmarked for medical research (40%) and for the care of MS patients within the Chapter's area (60%).

Archibald S. Alexander Jr., is chairman of the Princeton Committee and Mrs. Walter Coon is associate chairman. Richard W. Colman is finance chairman for Princeton and checks may be sent to him at Box 484, Princeton.

BUDGET PASSES. For Township Schools, about a dozen Township residents listened quietly and made a few quiet comments Thursday night as Township School Board members held a budget presentation in classroom style, complete with projector and screen.

Afterwards, the Board passed the $2,704,413 budget which taxpayers will vote on when school elections come up on Tuesday, February 8. The amount to be raised by taxation is $2,401,446. This is $178,225 more than last year, about $4.50 more per year in school taxes on a $30,000 house.

The only thing that ruffled the surface of the public hearing was an extended dialogue between Leonard Di Donato, spokesman for four Italian-American organizations in Princeton, and school board members.

Mr. Di Donato's constituents are in the middle and lower income brackets, and he urged board members to keep the school budget at an "absolute minimum."

The Pinch. "I assure you that my colleagues are penny-pinchers," said Board member Charles Jaffe, with a smile. George Grace, Board president, said that the Board was acutely aware of the pressures on people with modest incomes.

He pointed to a net decrease of four tax points in two years in the school budget; down seven points last year, but up three this year.

John McKeown, superintendent of schools, read a list of tax figures comparing the levy on a $20,000 home in Princeton and in several other New Jersey communities.

He said that the East Orange resident with a $20,000 home pays $200 a year more than a Princeton resident. The Montclair resident, also $200 more; the Bergen home-owner $70 more and the Camden resident $300 more.

Mr. Grace said the Board was dedicated to excellence in the schools and was not willing to compromise if excellence had to be sacrificed. Board member Laurence Holland suggested that excellence was most important, perhaps, to Mr. Di Donato's fellow club-members, many of whom are new to this country and not native to the English language.

Oppose High School. Although the proposed Township high school was not on the agenda Mr. Di Donato brought it into the discussion and told the board that all four of his groups were opposed to "Township High."

"You've got a real selling job to do if you want that high school," Mr. Di Donato warned the board. "You take the attitude that most people are in favor, but this isn't so. My ed. board. You take the groups aren't just afraid of taxes, they believe we're one community and should have one school. I'm a graduate of here had no feelers from the way, too."

"I'm also a graduate of Princeton High School," Mr. Grace replied. He informed Mr. Di Donato that many public meetings would take place before the high school referendum, and that anybody could come and ask questions and express opinions.

He also reminded Mr. Di Donato that the Township Board wanted a single high school, too. "But who said no?" It was the Borough, not the Township," Mr. Grace pointed out.

"Do all of you feel that there is no possibility of school merger any more?" Mr. Di Donato asked. Mr. Jaffin replied, "We have had no feelers from the Borough."

The Board expressed its "deep gratitude" to Mrs. Jean Epstein, whose last board tickets are available from the Township. The Borough A Club has served on the Township School Board for nine years.

RANGERS PREPARE FOR NATIONAL YMCA WEEK: YMCA Rangers Bill McCook (left), Gordon Smith and Dick Whinnip get in some practice for their annual Lumberjack Pancake Breakfast, a regular feature of National YMCA Week. All the pancakes you can eat will be served by the Rangers next Saturday, the 29th, from 7 to 11 a.m.

PANCAKES ON MENU: For YMCA Rangers. The annual lumberjack pancake breakfast sponsored by the YMCA Rangers Club will be held this Saturday from 7-11 at the Princeton YMCA. The breakfast will be served by both the boys and their parents.

In charge of the all-you-can-eat event will be Mrs. Herman Muesel and Mrs. Richard Utman, with assistance in serving from the fathers and boys. Tickets are available from the boys or at the door.

The Rangers A Club uses funds raised from the breakfast to help finance a summer trip program. Last summer they completed a 5,000-mile western trip which included a horseshoe pack to the Colorado Rockies.

TOWNSHIP REFLIES: To High School Faculty. The establishment of a Township High School does not preclude the possibility of eventual merger of the two school systems.

In a careful, moderate and lengthy letter this week, the Township School Board replied to the Princeton High School faculty's statement of two weeks ago arguing that a single community keep a single "Princeton" high school.

"We assume," the letter says, "that when you speak of the forces that seek to divide our educational community you are referring to the anti-merger forces, and not to Township citizens or to the Township Board of Education."

"This would be an inaccurate and unjustified description of the community that voted 12-1 to consolidate its own entire individual and excellent elementary system in order to achieve total school merger. We would have welcomed your support during the referendum campaign to attain this objective."

Regionalized? No. The Township Board repeats its conviction that "the best education for our children can be obtained in a single system extending from kindergarten through high school, with its policies established by a single school board elected by our citizens and administered by a single superintendent."

A regionalized high school, the Board points out, would not only prevent the Township from achieving a K-12 continuity, but would deprive the Borough of the K-12 continuity it already has.

The Board's letter also cites the "serious overcrowding" at Princeton High, agreeing with the faculty statement that at least one more high school will eventually be needed in the Princeton area.

The letter refers to high school plans for "extended scheduling" next year and the possibility of double sessions.

Resources are Here. "The Township is fully able, with population and resources, to begin organizing its own complete system. We suggest that by withdrawing from Princeton High as soon as possible, Princeton Township will be instrumental in improving rather than damaging the quality of education at Princeton High School."

"We have never declined to consider proposals for cooperation and we continue to welcome them," the letter says, adding the belief of Board members that, in actively and publicly studying the matter for six years, they have made their conclusions quite clear.

"We can foresee many fine opportunities for co-operation between Borough and Township school systems. Indeed, in vocational and advanced-standing classes, cooperation will be essential if we are to take full advantage of our opportunities and resources," the statement concludes.

"We hope this response will help you to understand that we must proceed with our plans to bring the matter of a Township High School to a referendum as soon as possible."

Remove That Snow!

"It's the same people every year, and we're getting mighty tired of it."

The speaker, Police Chief Peter J. McCrehan, his patience frayed, has warned that his department will crack down on the "habitual offenders" who refuse to clean their sidewalks after a snowfall. "A lot of homeowners," he said, "clean a path from their door to the sidewalk and go no further."

A borough ordinance provides that all sidewalks must be cleared within 12 hours of daylight after snow stops falling. Armed with a new Borough summons which facilitates prosecution, Chief McCrehan has ordered his men to issue warnings. Those who do not comply will be fined.

GUILTY PLEA ENTERED
To Manslaughter Charge, Roderick D. Pannell, 25, a former Princeton resident, pleaded guilty in Mercer County this week to a charge of manslaughter.

Pannell was arrested in the early morning hours of Saturday, August 7, after he had been involved in a street fight with Frederick L. Wilson, 31, of 100 Leigh Avenue. Stabbed in the chest with a paring knife, according to the police report, Mr. Wilson was dead on arrival at Princeton Hospital.

The fight was staged shortly after midnight outside the White Horse Tavern at a Birch Avenue. Pannell was taken into custody an hour or two later by Township police at the apartment of Peter Oppenheimer, 24-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Robert Oppenheimer of 97 Olden Lane. Pannell's trial on the charge had been scheduled for next week. His plea of guilty was made before Judge C. Clinton Bennett of Princeton and sentencing will follow shortly.

Obituaries

Lious R. Gilbert, 76, of River Road, died January 23 in Princeton Hospital after a brief illness. He was the founder and president of the Kingston Trap Rock Co.

Despite a limited education, which did not include college, Mr. Gilbert achieved a major degree of success. It was in 1933 that he founded Kingston Trap Rock, following his purchase of the quarry near Rocky Hill. Later, he constructed similar plants in a number of New Jersey and Pennsylvania areas and acquired ownership of two in Pennsylvania and Lambertville, which he substantially improved.

Born in Middleport, N.Y., Mr. Gilbert had spent most of his life in this area. His financial success enabled him to engage in philanthropic activities to the benefit of surrounding communities.

He gave the borough of Rocky Hill and Olympic-size swimming pool, made land available for a Little League baseball field in Hopewell and donated the ground on which the Princeton Shrine Club stands on River Road.

At the time of his death, Mr. Gilbert was president of the board of the Harrison Valley Hospital and had been active in its design and construction. It will be completed later this winter.

A member of the Princeton Methodist Church, Mr. Gilbert belonged to the Princeton Shrine Club, as well as to fraternal orders in Trenton and Bound Brook.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Judith Meyer Gilbert; a daughter, Mrs. Ann H. Farr of Belle Mead; a brother, George, of Kingston; and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at his home, with Dr. Leon Gibson of the Princeton Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Princeton Cemetery, under direction of the Mathis Funeral Home.

W. Frederick Stohlmann, 79, associate professor of art and archaeology, emeritus, Princeton University, died on January 19 in Princeton Hospital after complications following a stroke last July. The husband of Mrs. Martha Lou L. Stohlmann, he lived at 11 Edgewood Hill Street.

An extremely popular teacher at Princeton and at one time clerk of the University time clerk of the university faculty, Professor Stohlmann retired in 1954 after 24 years of teaching. He was a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., and a member of the Princeton Class of 1909.

In World War I, after receiving his master's degree at Princeton, he served in France with the Army Corps of Engineers, first with the 1st Infantry Division and subsequently with the Artillery Information Service. During the war he was a view of his fluency in French and German and a reading knowledge of Italian and Spanish, he served in Italy with the United States Office of War Information.

Professor Stohlmann joined the art and archaeology department in 1920. His principal publication was "The Etruscan art" one of the catalogues of the Museo Spero of the Vatican Library. He was a member of the Archaeological Institute of America, College Art Association and the Medieval Academy.

Also surviving are two daughters, Julie, a freshman at Princeton University, and Suzanne, a sophomore at Princeton High School.

The service was held in First Presbyterian Church. Memorial gifts may be sent to The Stohlmann Fund for Art, Music and History in the Princeton University Library.

Mrs. Josephine L. Zoccola, 53, of 43 Pine Street, died January 21 in Princeton Hospital after a lengthy illness. She was the wife of Peter J. Zoccola and a lifelong resident of Princeton.

Also surviving are two daughters, Miss Gracina A. Zoccola and Miss Donna M. Zoccola; a brother, Pasquale. —Continued on Page 34

PREFERS INCOME TAX TO SALES TAX: Car salesman Louis Conant prefers a state income tax to a sales tax because, he says, it "applies to those who are most capable of paying." (Staff Photo)

Question of the Week

Question: New Jersey is confronted with the need of adopting a broad base tax. Do you personally favor a state income tax or a sales tax?

Where asked: Palmer Square.

Louis F. Conant, Jr., Kendall Park, salesman for Nassau-Conover Ford: I'm always in favor of a state income tax over a sales tax for the reason that a sales tax hits everybody across the board, whereas the income tax applies to those who are most capable of paying. This, of course, with the consideration that the income tax is adjusted, like the federal tax, according to the size of the family and the income. I think any additional tax should be a broad base tax because I feel the property owner has been carrying the tax burden for New Jersey too long.

Mrs. Norma Ruse, English-ton, visiting nurse: A sales tax, I don't think we notice it quite so much. It's easier to pay.

Mrs. Russell Thayer, 21 Lilac Lane, housewife: I sort of prefer a sales tax. If you buy something you pay it, but if you don't, you're just paying a tax because the state needs money—you don't get stashed for it. With an income tax, you pay whether you buy or not. Actually, of all the ways there are to raise money, the one I most approve of would be to legalize gambling. Then those who want to gamble and the state will benefit.

Miss Betty Avery, Hopewell reading counselor: I don't prefer either one. If we have to have money from somewhere, I don't know how much an income tax would take in compared to a sales tax but I imagine it would be more convenient to pay it all in one lump sum. I've lived in Pennsylvania where they have a sales tax—I think it's five percent now—so I'm familiar with that.

Mrs. Miriam Yutkowitz, 33 Robert Road, housewife: A state income tax, because I think it is the fairest way of raising revenue. I've lived in Connecticut and New York where both have income taxes and the facilities in these states are much better than they are in New Jersey. Also, education is suffering in the state. I think anyone who has children approaching college age, I can't help but be concerned. I don't like a sales tax because I think a tax should be levied in terms of ability to pay and a sales tax affects those most who can least afford to pay.

Anton Schmitz, Kendall Park, personnel department: Princeton University. Personally, I favor a sales tax. I agree with a lot of people who say if you have an income tax, it takes a big bite out of your weekly paycheck; whereas if you have a sales tax, it's up to you whether you buy or not and, consequently, whether you give your money for taxes. Certainly there is a need for more taxes in this state and I've heard where the income tax would be fairer but I don't know if I agree with that. I guess when it comes to taxes, everybody looks out for himself.

Mrs. Fay Ahelson, 137 Loomis Court, housewife: I favor a graduated state income tax. I feel it puts the burden on people who can more readily afford to pay and spares the lower income people. I'd like to put in a word for the League of Women Voters if I may. We've been offered a broad base tax for a long time.

Mrs. Melvin Scherer, 8 Taylor Road, housewife: I would prefer a state income tax. I think it would be fairer, especially for the poorer person and those on a fixed income. With a sales tax, everybody pays the same.

James Anderson, Hibernia Apartments, University faculty: I think I'd favor a state income tax, not because I like it but because I think it's the most only way it can be done. A sales tax puts a little too much of the share on people with lower incomes.

H. M. Rieker, Rocky Hill, retired Rutgers University professor: Well, I think we need more taxes to keep this state in proper condition and I'd be in favor of an income tax if it were graduated on a man's income.

Mrs. Gordon Mack, 225 S. Harrison Street, housewife: A broad-based state income tax, definitely. I'm a member of the League of Women Voters and we feel an income tax is much more equitable. I lived in a state—Illinois—where they have a sales tax. Such a tax penalizes the lower income group, the ones who are least able to pay. They even included food. What it was, in fact, was a broad based sales tax. It really covered the waterfront.

Robert Stevenson, Trenton, lab technician, Princeton University: I think a sales tax. I feel just about everybody has to shop. I don't think you'd mind it as much as you would an income tax.

Mrs. D. O. Donnasch, Blawieburg, housewife: We've got enough taxes to begin with but if I had to pick one I'd prefer a sales tax. A sales tax, I'm not in favor of a graduated tax. I wouldn't mind being taxed a definite percentage of my income but I don't see why people should pay more just because they earn more. I think it should be the same percentage for everyone. I think this discourages initiative. A sales tax is that way; everybody pays the same. I don't think people should be taxed more for working hard.

George Borastello, 162 Nassau Street, graduate student: English. I think a state income tax is a little fairer; it spreads the burden a little more evenly.

New Precautions Urged.

To the Editor of Town Topics: Tragedy has hit the Lake Carnegie area for the third time in two years. Fantastically similar to the drowning tragedy of February '66, two young boys drowned Friday afternoon in the canal. Last summer, a Trentonian drowned when a rowboat tipped over — two other men barely made it to shore.

What can we do about it? Evert more safety rings, put up a fence around the lake and on and down the canal, ban skating altogether in the area? Surely thoughts like these are going on in many people's minds right now.

The Lake Carnegie Safety Committee, organized in the winter of '64, has had a lot of cooperation. Carl Pope of the University tramped the circumference of the lake several times to set up locations for safety stations. Jack Petrone of the Police Department has been tireless in delivering safety lectures, and in testing the lake every day for safety. Herb Hober of WWII has given valuable radio time to announcements on the conditions of the lake, and finally Donald Barr, Princeton's recreation director, has supervised the entire program.

Yet, in spite of these safety measures, the Carnegie Lake area is still deathly dangerous. What should be done?

The following plan may not be popular with everyone, but after much concerned thought, I believe it would work — and will eventually lead to more recreational use of the Carnegie Lake area than before.

1. One, perhaps two, areas of the lake must be marked off by ropes or wax horses, and these would be officially designated as the only areas allowed for skating.

2. Definite hours for skating would be established by common agreement.

3. A safety patrol would be created — perhaps partly voluntary, as with the "ski patrol" system — to supervise the skating areas.

4. These patrols, together with the Township, Borough, and University police, would be empowered to prevent skating on any part of the lake or canal not properly supervised. A system of fines might be worked out to enforce these regulations.

These proposals may sound too strict, but what is the difference between a beach safety program complete with lifeguards, designated swimming areas and areas, and what I am proposing for the lake?

If Princeton University, Princeton Borough and Township, Windsor Township, the Rescue Squad, the Police departments and the Recreation Committee will work out together in the next two weeks a safety program such as I have outlined above, I will undertake to raise funds sufficient to provide all equipment needed, such as ladders, rope, stanchions, sign, etc., to put this program into effect.

Boy Scouts, PTW, church groups, service organizations, won't you help work out a quick solution to this community problem, by phoning or writing your councilmen, friends at the University, or the Recreation Committee, and offering your support to make the lake area safe for you and your children.

SAMUEL W. PILLSBURY
134 Leabrock Lane

Editor's Note: Mr. Pillsbury's extremely thoughtful letter is deserving of the widest possible support. In view of the youthfulness of the four boys who have lost their lives in the last two years, precautions must be geared to protect those who lack awareness of the multiple dangers of skating on different bodies of water in varying temperatures.

Critical Situation Foreseen.

To the Editor of Town Topics: I have lived in Princeton Borough for 40 years and have seen the remarkable growth and development of our secondary schools. The driving forces in this growth have been new ideas, higher standards, and the sustained cooperation between parents, schools and community. I was chairman in my time of both the Elementary and High School P.T.A.'s.

If the Princeton High School is pulled apart, the situation will be critical. Genuine intelligent interest and cooperation can prevent this.

I am convinced that Mr. John A. Buckland, Professor Robert A. Lively, and Mrs.

"Only Sensible Answer"

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Dear Sir:

From the very beginning of the Princeton Township merger of the Princeton Board of Education and Princeton Township School System, I have favored the only truly sensible answer to two such small communities. So many problems must be handled separately and seem to be unnecessarily tedious due to the existing circumstances. My hope was that at least the schools could be handled as one.

Many citizens during the past months have written and discussed the practical aspects of dissolving this problem with the far-sighted approach which the town of this nature should surely have. I find it very disappointing that an issue as important as this one should be viewed in any other manner.

The endorsement of the two superintendents should have been one of the best indications of the value which must be placed on this educational system. The recent endorsement of the teachers further confirms this stand.

My most sincere hope is that some two small communities do not end up with something that serves neither as it should. I refer particularly to the middle of the road students who cannot be served properly unless they are in the enough numbers to justify the expense of the programs they need.

In a community like Princeton, this student could easily suffer. In larger communities or those on a different composition, they are at a far better advantage.

One small note from one of our daughters who very appropriately stated, "How could we ever get to know each other if we didn't go to the same school?" Many of the junior high school students have anticipated eagerly going to Princeton High School for this very reason.

How to Find Real Status.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I hope that all of Princeton watched the Bob Hope show tonight (January 19). If those who did would see a millimeter or so beyond his wonderful ratter and apropos jokes, they would see easily, the magnificence, courage and determination of our young men and women in S. E. Asia.

They are truly wonderful. Many of them start here at Fort Dix and many are returned here wounded, many sick, all scared and lonely at either end of the pipe-line.

Many of us here in Princeton seem to sit here on our fat tails, joining organizations that may promote us or our families a social rung on the ladder.

There is only one organization where our ladies (and not so many men) can find real status by visiting those young men, sick, lonely and homesick as army recruits, or wounded kids back from S. E. Asia, in the hospital. This is the Red Cross and especially the Red Cross Ladies.

These ladies visit, talk to and cheer up all sorts and stripes of these boys. They get them books, magazines, writing material, get letters home and talk to them as persons not as so many bodies for assignment. The Red Cross has place for and take for entertainers, ask the group of Folk Stars who went down a few weeks ago, library workers, clinic helpers, Motor Corps drivers.

handful of Gray Ladies have been active. Many others have been trained, but can't continue because of interruptions of vacations, for trips to Bermuda or around the world or something. All of the active ones are growing older; young people are needed.

We are now in a war. Does it have to be declared by Congress before we Princetonians can see that there is something more pressing than bridge, cocktail parties, top-level committees or prestige, and admit that our young men are really worth a few hours a week of personal interest and morale help?

New School Year Examined.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

As a Borough resident, as well as a parent and teacher of students now in Princeton Borough schools, I was disappointed at the outcome of the recent school reorganization vote. However, the creation of separate Township High School might have the indirect effect of clarifying our goals as a community.

Since site and buildings are secondary to recruiting an excellent administration, faculty, and staff, one of the first problems that arises is: where will a whole new faculty live? The Township's professed residential philosophy is opposed to the existing or even allowing the construction of any more low- or medium- cost housing. Hence, the Township will have to decide which, in my view, is her highest value in composition of the community.

At least three outcomes are possible:

- 1) The happy group working in the new structure will be enticed by salaries enabling them to build $40,000 homes on an acre of ground.
- 2) New members of the teaching community will be enticed not by such currently unattainable salaries, but by the more honest lure of "Come."

Dr. Willet's work in leaded stained glass can be seen in more than 1,000 churches, synagogues and homes in the United States and abroad. His studios designed and executed three clerestory windows in the Princeton University Chapel and restored the traditional leaded windows at Trinity Church.

To illustrate his lecture, Dr. Willet will use examples of his work. The meeting is open to members of the Association and their guests with a small admission charge.

Robert D. Lilley (left), New Jersey Bell president, discusses construction plans for a new $2,000,000 switching center in Newark.

This year,
New Jersey Bell's construction bill will be over $150,000,000.

Why?

Just to keep ahead of New Jersey's amazing growth—that's the main reason. And we believe that our state's growth will be even more spectacular in the future. Today's building program is to make sure that we will be ready for it.

More service—plus new services

It's not just a matter of more telephone service. There are many remarkable new services—some for business, some for your home. For example, the Trimline® phone with the dial in the handset will become available later this year. And Touch-Tone® push-button phones are being introduced area by area.

Building all over state

We're pushing ahead with over 1,000 construction projects in different parts of New Jersey. In Landsville, for instance, we'll break ground in April for a $100,000 central office. A $600,000 addition will be added to the Accounting Center in Teaneck. And we'll complete work this spring on a new $2,000,000 switching center in Newark.

More employment for New Jersey

Our 1966 program will provide hundreds of new jobs, both inside and outside the company. What's more, Western Electric and Bell Laboratories as well as New Jersey Bell will be buying from over 3,300 local companies. It all adds up to a major contribution to our state's economy.

Earning to pay for the program

Of course, our building program depends on our earnings. A large part of each year's profits go into this building for the future. In addition, adequate earnings are essential to attract the new capital needed to do the job.

Our construction plans are big, and will probably grow bigger. But one thing becomes more apparent with every year I spend in the telephone business. The best of buildings—the most advanced equipment—are only tools. It's the telephone people who count. The high quality of your phone service depends on the New Jersey Bell men and women who do their job so well. After all—people serving people—that's what New Jersey Bell is all about.

GAINS ANNOUNCED

By Savings and Loan, The Princeton Savings and Loan Association showed gains in all areas of operations for the year ending December 31. Assets increased nearly $13 million during the past year to a new high level of $16,115,097.

(Don Rodenbach did so against Navy and Ed Hummer followed suit against Dartmouth). Rodenbach's 12.8 average is tops after 12 games, with Hummer at 12.4 and sophomore John Harlow, who has yet to start a game, the only other player in double figures with 11.7.

The outcome of the contest will hinge on the extent to which Princeton's tight defense averaging 39 points a game can pare down Penn's well-rounded offense. Tiger basketball teams have a habit of rising to an occasion such as this, but it will take a major team reversal of the brand of play exhibited against Dartmouth and Harvard — and it must be achieved after a two-week lay-off for examinations.

DEFENSE THE KEY
As Tigers Face Penn, Two basketball teams which rank among the top half dozen nationally in points allowed their opponents will face each other Saturday at 2 in Dillon Gymnasium. The key battle in the Ivy League, one which will sharply blunt Princeton's goals have had with all of these hopes for a fourth straight title if it loses to Penn, will be televised by Channels 4 and 6.

For the first time since Yale rolled in a 13-and-1 season in 1962, and Ivy quintet comes here favored to defeat the Quakers' outside shooting ability, good height and the impressive manner in which they have compiled their 11-3 record, all lead to the belief that they will win on Saturday.

Penn's basic strength lies in two players who give it a basketball rarity: Co-Captains Jeff Neumann and Stan Pavlak are shoot-to-earn All-Ivy rating for the third consecutive year. Few sophomores earn such recognition and then retain it for three seasons; even more rarely are they classmates on the same team.

To go with these two, who are averaging better than 42 points between them in Ivy action, are 6-8 John Hellings, 6-9 Frank Burgess and Chuck Fitzgerald, who at 6-2 is the same height as Neumann and Pavlak. Penn's tallest player, 6-10 Tom Mallison, is also its top sophomore.

The Quakers have beaten some four Ivy teams (Brown, Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth) that Princeton has, but have achieved their triumphs with consummate ease — in the Ivy League, one which will sharply blunt Princeton's goals have had with all of these hopes for a fourth straight title if it loses to Penn, will be televised by Channels 4 and 6.

For the first time since Yale rolled in a 13-and-1 season in 1962, and Ivy quintet comes here favored to defeat the Quakers a firm choice on greater all-around experience.

Tigers a Real Puzzle. A mark of a good basketball team, Princeton lacks both consistency and a spark that will light a fire under it when the outcome hangs in the balance. There have, of course, been notable exceptions to the latter shortcoming in the form of good second half rallies, but there is no one player of true take-charge ability.

Among the intangibles that make a good basketball team, Princeton lacks both consistency and a spark that will light a fire under it when the outcome hangs in the balance. There have, of course, been notable exceptions to the latter shortcoming in the form of good second half rallies, but there is no one player of true take-charge ability.

The Tigers are almost completely lacking in a player who can top 20 points in a game

The Lost Legend Goes to Rutgers

In 1912, when Thomas T. Barr was manager of the Rutgers football team, the Scarlet had beaten Princeton just once.

That was back in 1889 years before he was born. Barr would like to have played football, but he was too small, so he became manager of the sport he loved. In his junior year, the Rutgers-Princeton series was resumed after a lapse of 15 years and the Tigers won, 27-6. Next year they triumphed 41 to 6, for their 26th straight victory since losing that first one.

The years rolled by and Princeton always won. The string was broken in 1938 but the Tigers righted that omission immediately and it was not until 1947 that they lost again. Two years later, when Barr died, the rivalry showed 36 victories for Princeton and three for Rutgers.

For 40 years or more, Barr had taken a steady ribbing about the quality of Rutgers' football from his brother W. Manning Barr and F. Seymour Barr, both of whom went to Princeton. Today, however, Thomas T. Barr, late of Rutgers, has started to draw even.

When he died, 17 years ago, his estate was left in trust for his wife, Mary Mrs. Barr died last month, and it has just been announced that under the terms of her husband's will, Rutgers will receive $3 million to be used for football scholarships "so long as the sport is continued."

At 4 1/2%, the interest on $3 million is $150,000 annually — the equivalent of about 10 full scholarships for four years. Somewhere above the banks of the Barren, there is a sound of chuckling...

HOCKEY GAME TO FOLLOW

Dartmouth in "Doubleheader." An unusual twin bill is on Saturday's programs for Princetonians with Dartmouth scheduled to face the Princeton hockey team in Baker Rink at 4 o'clock. The indoor swimming team is also due here for a meet at 8, but that will conflict with both basketball and hockey.

The basketball-hockey doubleheader was created by time to televise the Penn-Princeton game as one of the Saturday matinee series sponsored by the Eastern College Athletic Conference. All other home basketball games are at night with hockey games scheduled for the afternoon to give the Tigers' opponents an early jump on the long trip home.

Dartmouth's sextet began the week with a 5-4-1 mark, including even breaks with Princeton and Yale. Each of the meetings with the Tigers have been 5-4 affairs decided in overtime.

The Indians' basic troubles have been defensive, as Coach Eddie Jeremiah has rotated three goalies and seeks to develop experienced sophomores at the blue line to go with a three-year veteran, Captain Charlie Stuart. Both Stuart and Bill Smoyer, a member of the Indians' first line, are PCO alumni and both played on championship teams at Andover.

Princeton's hockey fortunes were sliding downhill for nearly a month before the Tigers won at Hanover on January SHIRTSLEEVE WEATHER: Al Montego Bay, Jamaica, anyway, where these four Princetonians played in a 54-hole pro-amateur tournament. The January golfers are Al Neiderhite, pro at Springside; Lew Saret, Dick Morgan and George Barile.

Princeton was won by PHS, 22-12, in the end a six-game losing streak. Coach J. de Wilson has reshuffled his lines and has apparently come up with a win in senior Steve Cook and sophomores John Ritchie and Terry Peterson that has real firepower.

All five of Princeton's goals in the last game were credited to this line, Ritchie getting three of them. Like Dartmouth, an inconsistent defense has plagued the Orange and Black, and a high-scoring game Saturday may be the result.

EWING HERE FRIDAY

Hamilton Outclasses PHS. The halfway mark in the Princeton High School basketball schedule has been passed. As the Little Tigers proceed through their final nine games, it is obvious that this is not going to be one of their better seasons, but by winning half of those they left-behind record respectable.

To add some lustre to its tarnished image, the Blue and White will have to perform better against Mercer County teams, where its record is 1-4, second from the bottom. Its lone success against County opposition has been Ewing, which PHS defeated in its opener in December.

On Friday evening at 8, these two schools will square off for a second time on the PHS court. In the interim, the Blue Devils of Ewing have fired even worse than Princeton. They have lost all six of their contests with county teams and stand 4-6 overall. PHS began the week at 6-3.

Tuesday afternoon, Bridge-water-Harlan will visit Tigerwater, and while the Golden Falcons are not the juggernaut they were with all-state Mike Grosso in the lineup, they are still a formidable foe. Game time is 3:45.

David and Goliath. It was David versus Goliath in the Hamilton High School gym Friday night. Only this time David (visiting PHS) had no slingshot to bring the taller Hornets crashing down. Instead the home team won its tenth game in 12 starts with ease, 70 to 57.

Apparently venting its wrath on the Little Tigers for having been stung itself by Notre Dame the game before, Hamilton vaulted to a 19-6 lead. At the three-quarter mark it was 57 to 30. The slingshot business stopped when Coach Charlie Ross pulled his basket-stuffers out of the contest at the start of the final quarter. The final eight minutes of starting five measures 6-2. Bill McGuire, PHS playmaker, hit 3-9. Wilbur Hines, scoring leader for Princeton, is 5-10. Hamilton made virtually all of its shots underneath the basket. Whereas PHS could get off only a single shot, Hamilton took two or three shots every time before one of its "baskethandlers," tapped the ball in. During the entire game, Princeton collected 23 rebounds.

Unable to penetrate Hamilton's zone defense, the Blue and White had one alternative: shoot over it. Unfortunately, the Little Tigers have no one who can hit consistently from the outside. In height, shooting, rebounding, Hamilton had PHS checkmated all every turn.

Wilbur Hines was high man for PHS with 18 points. Ken Lyons was five for five from the foul line and added five more from the floor for 15.

PIS SKATERS LOSE PAIR
Livingston Here Friday, Oct. 11 to its best start in its brief three-year history when it won two and tied one of its first three games, the Princeton High School hockey team this weekend team saw its record change for the worse.

Saturday afternoon the Summit Redwings Hockey Club outskated the Little Tigers in the last two periods at Baker Rink to earn a 7-4 victory. Friday, the Cranford Hockey Club averaged an earlier defeat by PHS, turning on the losses left Princeton High with a 2-3-1 record.

PHS had opened its season with an impressive 8-1 rout of Demarest, Paul Rice scoring six times, and had tied the East on Monday, Oct. 11. It was blanked, 3-0, by the Lawrenceville School varsity in its fourth start.

On Saturday evening at 7 p.m. the Blue and White will play Lawrenceville again at Princeton University's Baker Rink, the site of all its home games.

Next Thursday, Demarest will be in town.

PBS Takes Lead. In the first period against Summit, the Little Tigers played their best hockey of the season, taking an early 3-1 lead. Despite the reversal engineered by the Redwings, PHS coach George Thompson said, "the best game we've played all year."

"Summit is the best team in PIS HOCKEY SKATERS: Members of coach George Thompson's hockey squad at Princeton High School are, first row, Bobby Linder, center; Dave Rogers, goalie; and Peter Duppel, wing. Standing are Paul Rice, captain and high scorer for the Little Tigers; Henry Summers, both defencemen; George Alexander; and Peter Starbuck, defencer.

New Jersey," he continued. "The boys really played a game and a half."

Princeton's outstanding scorer, Rice, who learned his hockey as a member of a Pee Wee league in Lake Forest, Ill., made three of Princeton's goals, two unassisted and another with an assist by center Bobby Linder. Steve Pearson got the other, aided by an assist by Buzz Sylvester.

On Friday, the Cranford Hockey Club, beaten earlier 3-1 by PHS, retaliated with a 4-1 victory. "We looked terrific," Thompson after the game. Wing Peter Duppel scored the losers' lone goal unassisted.

Starting for the Little Tigers were defencemen Peter Starbuck and Captain Rice. The line had Linder at center and George Alexander and Duppel on the wings. Dave Egala is the team's standout goalie.

HUN WINS, LOSES

As League Starts 2nd Half: The Hun School will start the second half of the Penn-Jersey League Saturday and try to accomplish what all the league teams tried to do in the first half: gain a clear-cut advantage. After leading most of the way, Hun was humbled by George School last week, 60-38, leaving the Red and Black with a 3-2 mark and dropping it back into a scramble with Pennington and Perkiomen for league honors.

Hun will start the second half on the road, Saturday it will be at Selahurgh and on Wednesday it will travel to Moorestown. Both were mastered by Hun in the first half. Since then, however, Selahurgh has defeated Pennington, indicating progress, and Hun coach Dave Lettice added: "I'm sure Moorestown has improved, too."

In its first of three non-league contests, Hun outlasted Delbarton Saturday, 65-58, with all seven Hun players figuring in the scoring. Hun jumped to a 19-14 lead at the end of the first quarter but after three periods of play the visitors had cut this to 48-46. In the final eight minutes, Hun was outscored from the floor but it was 8 of 10 free throws while Delbarton missed its lone charity shot.

Lettice cited sophomore Peter Braverman for playing a good game — Braverman scored 11 points — and Co-Captain Mike Miller, who, despite a temperature, led all Hun scorers with 17. "For a guy who was sick," said Lettice, "he played a heck of a game." Jim Mac-

PHS IN STATE TOURNEY
Swamps Madison, 82-47.
They're in! And for the third consecutive year.

By defeating Madison Township Tuesday night, 82-47, on the ice at the Princeton High School opened up their record in state tournament competition.
To be eligible, a school must have won more than half its games by the January 29 cutoff date.

So no matter what Ewing does to PHS Friday the Little Tigers are in. Further, no matter what happens during the remainder of the season, this has been a successful year for the Blue and White.

A 50-point second half powered Coach Tony Borzak's squad to its lopsided victory over Madison as Wilbur Jones retained his scoring touch, biting for 30 points. Wilbur also did a standout job in guarding Madison's scoring star, Coach Davis' son, Ed.
In final three periods, holding the all-state football star to 14 points. When "Scratchy" left the court with a few minutes to go, Madison fans cheered and applauded his all-round performance.

If Hines can score 104 points during the remaining games — a lead pipe cinch — he will have reached the 1000 point mark in three years as a valuable player. Pending a more exact search of past records memory serves that the last Little Tiger to reach this lofty plateau was Marvin Trotman back in the early 1930's.

Ken Lyons, who continues to improve with each succeeding game, made 29 points and Tom Wood added 18. Collectively, the Little Tigers pulled down 48 rebounds, Wood's 18 and Lyons' 10 contributing most to the upswing in this department.

The home team (2-8) was on the ice during the game during the first quarter. It was 12 to 11 after the first eight minutes of play but a 2-3 split by PHS in the second ended the visitors in front to stay.

PHS thus joins Hamilton,
Notre Dame, Steiner and St.
Anthony as sure state tournament entrants. The Little Tigers are pretty going to win a state championship but this alone is pretty impressive company.

BASKETBALL WINS TWO
Basketball Team Victorious Junior varsity teams from the Hun School and Blair Academy were defeated in basketball last week by the Princeton Day School to raise its record to 5-1.

After a close first half, PDS broke the tie with Hun in the second quarter, 54-33. Bill Rieck triumphed, 54-33. Bill Rieck accounted for 25 points. Craig Rue added 16 and Ricky Ross and Frank Andrews both had 11 rebounds.

Blair was in 14-25 loser at Rigot made 24 points and Page rebounds.

Princeton Women Lose

Two residents of Princeton were both defeated Saturday in final rounds of the annual New Jersey Women's Squash Racquets
Championship at the Pretty Brook Country Club.

Top-seeded, Mrs. Newton Nesde of Philadelphia won a four-set match from Mrs.
W. Pepper Constantine, the leading champion to take the 1966 title. The scores were 15-11, 16-16, 16-18 and 16-18.

In the consolation final,
Mrs. Marigold Edwards of Pittsburgh defeated Mrs.
Simoon Hutter of Princeton in straight sets. The scores were 15-11, 15-7, 15-3.

ST. PAUL'S WINS, 50-37

Over Incarnaton, St. Paul's continues its mastery in the southern division of the Trenton CYO League, where it reigns supreme in the grammar school division.

Last week, St. Paul's won its 17th in 18 league starts when it defeated Incarnaton, 50-37. Five St. Paul players accounted for all the scoring, with Mike Maguire far in front with 31 points. Harry Norton added eight, Mike Tomlinson and Peter Sweeney four each, and Mickey Chapak, three.

ETS IS TIED

By Film Center. Film Center won the game it had to last week in the YMCA Research and Industrial Basketball League.

A sensational 32-point performance by Tony Bocciafano — 10 above his average — led Film Center to a 71-50 victory over previously unbeaten Educational Testing Service and a share of first place. Both teams T-1 records. Paul Harmon had 24 for ETS.

In the second game played at the PHS court, Western Electric 15-3, the only team with a chance of overtaking the leaders, overcame a 16-15 halftime lead by Van Nostrand to win, 42-29. Carl Harris, Wendell McPhee and Gerry Hansen each made 10 points for WE. Tom Cramp's eight points was high for Van Nostrand.

At the other end of the standings, the big news was RCA's first victory in the gaming, a 30-40 triumph over Hospital. Behind at the three-quarter mark, RCA, paced by Jim Clark who finished with 24 points, outscored Hospital,
26-8, in the final period. Ed Riddick collected half of 509-series' output, 21 in all.

The standings:

Western Elec.	7	1	.875

Women with damaged hair who need a permanent, now can have one without any problems. An ordinary permanent can't do anything but make matters worse.

Most people today think that all waves are the same—THIS IS NOT SO.

For example: we all can see and feel the difference between a pair of ten dollar waves and a pair costing forty dollars. The same difference is true of a hair wave and one that is specifically formulated for different types of hair.

The problem with budget waves is that they contain harsh alkalis that tend to dry and sometimes damage the hair... whereas our formulated waves couldn't be more gentle than spring water.
That's because they don't contain these harsh alkalis found in ordinary lotions.

Our formulated waves have PROTEIN which is what dry hair damaged hair needs most.
As it waves, PROTEIN in-fuses the hair, helping to restore it to its natural condition.

URGENTLY NEEDED $615,000

PRINCETON HOSPITAL PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY 08540

Board of Trustees

January 25, 1966

My Fellow Citizens:

Three weeks ago our letter informed the community of Princeton Hospital's urgent need of $615,000 so that the Trustees could accept a bid for the construction of the "J" Building at a cost of $2,670,400.

Today we can report two significant factors which encourage the Trustees to press forward with the fund-raising effort. The new developments are:

1. The contractor has noted the community's gratifying reaction to the appeal and has volunteered to hold the bid open until March 5, 1966.

2. Several hundred individuals have responded to our appeal with contributions large and small. Industry and other businesses in the Greater Princeton Area along with many private organizations have made gifts or increased their previous pledges to the Building Fund.

Several people have asked: "Why was the need for funds so urgent and apparently unanticipated?"

Our answer is frank and simple: Contributions to the Building Fund over the past three years have been considerable, but the Hospital now has spent over $1½ million for vitally needed service facilities — laundry, kitchen and food handling, central sterile supply, etc. However, the gift-giving fell out of step with the building program and it was necessary to intensify our financial appeal in order to assure that the new construction will begin this coming spring.

The "J" Building will add 42 more surgical and medical beds and it also will provide space to enlarge and modernize the x-ray and laboratory facilities. We must stress the fact that these are not extra or surplus additions, but real existing needs of this very day. These are important elements of Princeton Hospital's master plan designed to meet the increasing medical and health needs of a constantly growing community.

As we stated in our first letter: There is no alternative. We must accept or reject the construction bid very soon. For the sake of lives at stake, we beg your support now.

Sincerely yours,

George W. Conover
President
Board of Trustees

Instead of a sales "pitch", we are devoting this space to a few words of explanation re:

H. R. 2 or The "Drug Abuse" Law

New regulations, governing the manufacture and distribution of certain classes of drugs go into effect Tuesday, February 1. The drugs which comprise this group are the barbituric acid derivatives and amphetamines, or "depressant or stimulating drugs." This group accounts for approximately 20% of the total prescription volume of our country today.

Certain of these drugs are habit-forming; others are stimulating, giving relief from fatigue or depression. As the name implies, the Drug Abuse Law was passed by Congress to control drug abuse, not to deprive any patient with legitimate medical need for such medication; however, a little prudence and forethought will have to be used by patient, pharmacist and physician. There are many medical indications where certain of these drugs are used as maintenance medication, possibly for the remainder of the patient's natural life.

After February 1, prescriptions for drugs in these categories may be refilled — when indicated by the prescriber — five times or for six months, whichever comes first. Then a new prescription must be issued. The new prescription may be either given in writing or telephonically, but it must be a NEW prescription.*

Penalties for failure to comply range up to a year in prison and a fine of $1,000 for the first offense. The law will be administered by and enforced by agents of the federal government, so violations will not be treated lightly.
